

Summer Resorts.

Summer Resorts.

Situations Wanted—Females.

A BEAUTIFUL Mountain Retreat.—Terrace Hall, Ramapo, Rockland Co., N. Y.; 24 miles on Erie Railway; splendid scenery; boating, fishing moderate terms. ACCOMMODATIONS for a few adults among the Berkshires Hills. City references. S. BENEDICT, New-Hampshire, Mass.

ANY person wishing first-class board on an audience 500 feet above tide-water can spring to T. W. SUFFER, South, N. Y.

ARTIST'S FALLS HOUSE, North Conway, N. H., open June 1.—First class in every respect; the celebrated Forest Glen Mineral Spring well known for its medicinal properties, near the house.

AT THE KING EASTMAN. Proprietor.

AT A PLEASANT FARMHOUSE near the Catawissa & beavers festal; exceedingly healthy and pleasant locality; air rooms, veranda, piano, croquet, tennis, billiards, &c. To ladies, gents, & maid-servants; most hospitable family; two English are some of its attractions. Send for circular. References: W. Marion, Knight & Co., 74 and 75 Worth-st., Spear & Dunham, 100 Broadway, N. Y.; J. K. Knapp, 112 West-st., or address M. C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT ATLANTIC HOUSE, Ocean Beach, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT MORRIS TOWNS, N. J.: fifteen minutes drive from New-York; large grounds, shaded grounds; pure mountain air; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

A WIDOW LADY residing in the country.

A wishes to take two or three children to board; would give them a mother's care, and if required, send them to school. Address: Mrs. S. LAWRENCE, E. Buck Church Street, East Orange, N. J.

BERKSHIRE HILLS.—Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

BERKSHIRE HILLS, FERNSHIRE, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT Central Valley, Orange County, N. Y.

48 miles from city, via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT LONG BRANCH, LELAND'S OCEAN HOTEL NOW OPEN.

LONG BRANCH, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.

Lehigh Valley R. R.—This pleasant and healthy summer resort is open for the season; good stabling; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mrs. A. GARRET, Notion Hill, Bethel, Penn.

AT THE SPRINGS, Elizabethtown, N. Y.

4 miles from city; via Erie R. L. large house and grounds; airy rooms, broad plazas, plenty of shade; quiet; no music; tea, leading, & dining-rooms; billiard-table; moderate price; send for circular giving references.

ISAAC L. NIXON.

AT THE OCEAN BEACH, New-Jersey.

New open for the season; elegant fifth rates from the surf, with an ocean view from every room; extensive plazas surrounding the house all sides.

AT THE CLIFFS, cottage, Morris Ave., open for guests; transfer of season; near the water; large stables; good stabling. Particulars at 12 East 17th st.

AT THE ELM TREE FARM HOUSE, Jewett Heights, Catskill Mountains, N. Y.—Want 10 or 15 boarders, terms $12 per week, $100 per month. Address: Mrs. A. J. A. E. Jewell, N. Y.

AT THE BEECHES, Cladon House, Beacon, Mass.—A comfortable family resort; 1200 feet above the sea. Address: A. G. CROSS, Proprietor.

AT THE BEECHES, Fernshire, Tyringham, Mass. 1,000 feet above tide; have fewer patients here; established institutions in the resort; good health; billiards, tennis, croquet, &c. Address: Mr. A. R. MATHEWS, 208 Broadway, N. Y.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOME, Littleton, N. H.—Situated near depot. Post office, and church, in a dry, healthy locality; second to no place in New England for health; good for invalids; good for day visitors.

AT THE MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Hunter, Green County, N. Y.—This hotel, enlarged, is situated in the heart of the Catskills, and now open for the accommodation of tourists and the general public. Terms $12 per week. Rev. JOHN C. ADAMS, Room 701, Blue House, New-York.

AT THE PINE FOREST, Bethel, Penn.